HOME FIRST FINANCE COMPANY INDIA LIMITED
(‘Home First’)

FAIR PRACTICE CODE

Fair Practice Code

1. Introduction

The Guidelines on Fair Practices Code for Housing Finance Companies which defines the fair practices standards while dealing/building relationships with prospective/existing customers and has been framed and amended by Reserve Bank of India(RBI) through RBI Circular RBI/2020-21/73 DOR.FIN.HFC.CC.No.120/03.10.136/2020-21 related to Master Direction – Non-Banking Financial Company – Housing Finance Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2021 dated February 17, 2021 in keeping with the need to follow the best corporate practice within the sector. In accordance with these guidelines, Home First Finance Company India Limited (“Home First”) had formulated & implemented a “Fair Practice Code.” The basic essence of Fair Practices Code is to assist both the Home First and the customer(s).

2. Application of the Code

- a. This Code shall apply to all the products and services, whether they are provided by Home First, or Digital Lending Platforms (self-owned and/or under an outsourcing arrangement) across the counter, over the phone, by post, through interactive electronic devices, on the internet or by any other method. In case of outsourced lending platforms, Home First shall meticulously follow regulatory instructions on outsourcing off financial services and IT services.
- b. The code shall be applicable across all aspects of operations including marketing, loan origination processing and servicing and collection activities and various service providers, engaged by Home First. Our commitment to Fair Practice Code would be demonstrated in terms of employee responsibility, efficiency, monitoring and auditing programmes, training and technology.
- c. Through regular training programs, meetings, circulars and other modes of the communication employees would be made aware of the code so that there is a strong commitment for fair and quality lending and efficient and fair services.

3. Applications for loans and their processing

- a. All communications to the borrower shall be in the vernacular language or a language as understood by the borrower.
- b. Home First shall transparently disclose to the borrower(s) all information regarding fee/charges payable for processing the loan application, the amount of fees refundable if loan amount is not sanctioned/dispensed or rejected, prepayment options and charges therein, if any, penalty for delayed repayment if any, conversion charges for switching loan from fixed to floating rates or vice versa, existence of any interest re-set clause and any other matter which affects the interest of the borrower(s). In other words, the Company shall disclose “all in cost” inclusive of all charges involved in processing/sanction of loan application in a transparent manner. It should also ensure that such charges/fees are non-discriminatory.
- c. Home First shall not discriminate amongst physically challenged, disable/differently able or blind persons in any manner while dealing them. The Company shall treat such person with humanitarian approach and give priority over other visiting clients at the branch in attending his queries/application of such persons. Also, the Company shall take special efforts to make it easy and convenient for customers like senior citizens, physically challenged, differently abled or blind and illiterate persons while providing service.

- d. Loan application forms shall include necessary information which affects the interest of the borrower, so that a meaningful comparison with the terms and conditions offered by other Home First can be made and informed decision can be taken by the borrower. The loan application form may indicate the list of documents required to be submitted with the application form. We shall communicate to the borrowers about the possible impact of change in benchmark interest rate on the loan leading to changes in EMI and/or tenor or both, at the time of loan counselling.
- e. Home First shall devise a system of giving acknowledgement for receipt of all loan applications. Preferably, the time frame within which loan applications will be disposed should also be indicated in the acknowledgement.

4. Loan appraisal, terms/ conditions, and communication of rejection of loan application

Loan applications from all the customers are processed fairly. Home First shall not discriminate while appraising loan applications across borrower segments. The Company shall conduct a due diligence on the credit worthiness of the borrower, which will be an important parameter for taking decision on the application. The assessment would be in line with the company's credit policies, norms and procedures in respect thereof.

- a. Normally all particulars required for processing the loan application shall be collected by the Home First at the time of application. In case it needs any additional information, the customer should be told that he would be contacted immediately again.
- b. Home First shall convey in writing to the customer in the vernacular language or a language as understood by the customer by means of sanctioned letter or otherwise, the amount of loan sanctioned along with the terms and conditions which shall include annualized rate of interest, method of application, EMI structure, pre-payment charges, penal charges and shall obtain written acceptance of these terms and conditions from the customer for record.
- c. Home First shall mention the penal charges charged for late repayment in bold in the loan agreement.
- d. Home First shall invariably furnish a copy of the loan agreement along with a copy of each of the enclosures quoted in the loan agreement to every borrower at the time of sanction/ disbursement of loans, against acknowledgement.
- e. If Home First cannot provide the loan to the customer, it shall communicate in writing the reason(s) for rejection by sms/email/letter.

5. Disbursement of loans including changes in terms and conditions

- a. The loan agreement executed by the borrower at the time of availing the loan shall carry all the details with regards to the terms & conditions applicable. It shall also carry details on the interest and other charges as would be applicable.
- b. Home First shall give advance notice to its customers in the vernacular language or a language as understood by the customer in case of change in the terms & conditions including disbursement schedule, interest rate, penal charges, service charges, prepayment charges, other applicable fees/charges etc. Moreover, the Company shall ensure that changes to interest rates and charges are imposed only “prospectively” and necessary clause is incorporated in the loan agreement with respect to this.
- c. If the changes are to the disadvantage of the customers, he/she/they may close or switch the account at any time (without notice) within 60 (sixty) days without having to pay any extra charges or revised interest.
- d. At the time of each reset of interest rate, customer may, at the option of Company, have choice to switch over to a fixed rate by opting for either enhancement in EMI or elongation of tenor or a combination of both options, provided the following eligibility criteria is met:
 - The request can be placed after 12 months from the date of first disbursement.
 - The conversion fee to be paid upfront before the conversion. The conversion fee will be charged up to 2.0% + applicable taxes on Principal Outstanding.
 - The rate switch request will be reviewed at the sole discretion of the Company, depending upon various factors like - Borrower profile, Loan Repayment Track Record, Regular loan account and Regulatory requirement if any at the time of application of rate conversion.

Fixed Rate of Interest will be charged as 2% higher on the prevailing rate of interest of the customer on the date of the rate change.

The Company reserves the right to accept or decline the borrowers request for switch based on its assessment of the proposal and other factors affecting the lending business. The decision of the Home First shall be final, conclusive, and binding to the borrowers.

The same shall be communicated to the borrower through SMS/ E-mail/Letter or any other electronic mode. The revised interest rate will be effective from the billing cycle, following the month in which all necessary switch formalities and documentation are completed by the customer.

The borrower agrees and undertakes that he/she may not switch over from Fixed Rate of Interest to Floating Rate of Interest for the period of thirty-six months from the ROI conversion date. After the expiry of the specified period, the interest rate automatically stands converted into floating of interest and from such conversion date, Floating Rate of Interest shall commence and the terms applicable for the loan at Floating Rate of Interest shall apply.

- e. Home First ensure that the decision to recall/accelerate payment or performance under the agreement or seeking additional securities, the Company should be in consonance with the loan agreement.
- f. Home First shall release all securities immediately on realization of the outstanding amount of loan subject to any legitimate right or lien for any other claim, Home First may have against borrower. If such right of set off is to be exercised, the borrower shall be given notice about the same with full particulars about the remaining claims and the conditions under which the Company are entitled to retain the securities till the relevant claim is settled /paid.

6. Penal Charges in Loan Accounts

Commensurate with RBI Circular No. RBI/2023-24/53, issued on August 18, 2023, titled 'Fair Lending Practice - Penal Charges in Loan Accounts', the Company will adhere to the following principles with respect to imposing penal charges on borrowers for material breach of terms and conditions of the loan agreement.
